

Time Crimes

Aight bet

The Butterfly is Still in Effect

This film explores travel thru time
Good attention to detail with a strong storyline.

Moreover-

This film says something new
What do you do if you are fighting you?

Who is to say that the evil you do

Truly does belong to you.

I feel for our hero Hector, Damn

He is like Adam

Sitting in his garden

With his curiosity yearning

No apple this time

And that's the humor of the crime

So in closing I say

Sometimes it's best to walk away.

Film = B+ (Original, creative, light humor)
